An Online Program of Teacher Training and Leadership Development

Learning Agreements

I will:

1. Arrive on time, prepared and ready for the beginning of all classes.
2. Attend all sessions; complete missed class make-up work if a class is missed.
3. Complete and turn in all homework assignments.
4. Participate in classroom exercises.
5. Engage in networking rather than marketing.
6. Respect the intellectual property of the Center for Embodied Education and the Body Therapy Institute.
7. Maintain confidentiality of another's experience in the classroom.
8. Claim and speak my own experience, using “I” statements.
9. Acknowledge the pacing and privacy of another student's process – refrain from advising, assessing, coaching or teaching another student either in public or private unless there is a specific request from that student that I accept.
10. Extend positive regard and inclusivity to all those in the learning environment.
11. Take responsibility and ownership of my political and religious opinions and beliefs; balancing personal expression with discernment for right timing, right place, right context, right audience – so that the stated scope and purpose of every class within the program can be fulfilled.
12. Demonstrate professional conduct and respectful communication that acknowledges the dignity and diversity of others.
13. Foster an interactive dynamic in the classroom that reflects principles and practices of kindness, engaged listening, and compassionate action.
